3. Camille asks how and who decided to begin Registration earlier this semester
 - a. Jamie brings up that many sections do not know midterm grades, so it's hard to know what they need to take in the Spring 2023.
 - b. Brian brings up that we have no professor names or classroom numbers listed yet.
 - c. All agree that there are some issues with this that bring confusion and possible for issues arise in scheduling and registration.
 - d. Jamie says we will not see professors listed until there are enough students for the class to make (8?) and Matt agrees that this is problematic
 - e. Jamie says that Enrollment Management should be more involved with this.
 - f. We would like SGA's input on this, but they aren't represented at today's meeting.
 - g. Peter will ask around and check with Renee L. about this.
 - h. Peter brings up that Renee L. mentioned that we might want to talk about mental health training the Board of Governors has talked about improving mental health mentors; so do we see any mental health issues that students are showing? Maybe bring in someone from Counseling and Psychological Services to talk with us about this.
 - Camille mentions that it's tough when we have so many online students to assess this with those students -; how do we reach out to or assess them for mental health struggles? She's concerned about some of our graduate students moving forward.

- Jamie brings up that we might bring on someone from the Graduate School to see what their plan for mental health services and outgroup are. We might ask someone from CAPS to come to our meeting to address this.
- Brian brings up that it would be nice to know what the specific issues or alerts might look like for online students.
- Camille mentions that it would be nice to have a Hawk Alert type thing for graduate students that's universal.
- Peter will ask around about this.

I. Announcements
