

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH, THEATRE AND FOREIGN LANGUAGE
Bachelor of Arts in English: Theatre

MISSION STATEMENT

University Theatre is the producing organization of the Theatre Program in the Department of English, Theatre and Foreign Language. The mission of the Theatre Program is to provide our students with a comprehensive theatre background within the liberal arts framework of the University. Through an academic program covering most aspects of theatre study and a planned experiential program involving the practice of theatre production, the program strives to provide a complete theatre education. Our graduates should be able to participate in entry level positions in the theatre workforce, to enroll in and compete graduate school successfully, to work in community and regional theatres throughout their productive lives, and to have an enhanced appreciation for all aspects of theatre performance from the point of view of either participant or audience member.

GOALS

Goal #1

Participate successfully in the theatrical process.

Goal #2

Discuss, debate, and/or evaluate the production process, plays and history of theatre (in both written and oral form).

Goal #3

Desire to participate in theatre beyond their time at UNCP

STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES

G1 -- Objective #1

The student will demonstrate the ability to participate in the theatre process and evaluate their work

G2 -- Objective #2

The student will be familiar with theatre history, dramatic literature and dramatic theory

G3 -- Objective #3

The student will continue in professional, educational , and/or recreational theatre being conducted face to face) may have prevented more negative feedback from being shared.)