Residence-and-Tuition Status Application

Under North Carolina law, a person may qualify as a resident for tuition purposes in North Carolina, thereby being eligible for a tuition rate lower than that for nonresidents for tuition purposes. Copies of the applicable law and of implementing regulations are available for inspection in the Sampson Livermore Library located on the UNC Pembroke campus, Pembroke, NC and may be examined upon request. In essence, the controlling North Carolina statute (G.S. 116-143.1) requires that “To qualify as a resident for tuition purposes, a person by preponderance of the evidence must have established legal residence (domicile) in North Carolina and maintained that legal residence for at least 12 months immediately prior to his or her classification as a resident for tuition purposes.” G.S. 116-143.1 also sets forth statutory definitions, rules, and special provisions for determining residence status for tuition purposes. These provisions include special rules with respect to persons who are married or who are within identified subclasses of minors. Certain aliens may also qualify for resident tuition status.
