

SCHOOL COUNSELING (M.A.) AND SERVICE AGENCY COUNSELING (M.A.)

Director of Counseling Programs: Debra Preston

UNCP offers programs of study leading to the Master of Arts degree in School Counseling and Master of Arts degree in Service Agency Counseling. The primary objective of both programs is to develop professional level competence in the application of educational and psychological principles, counseling theory, and counseling techniques in order to facilitate personal development, personal adjustment, and interpersonal relations in school and agency settings. Students enrolled in these programs have the opportunity to become more sensitive to society and its dynamic qualities, as well as competent in designing and executing counseling and consulting activities. The programs are housed in UNCP's Psychology and Counseling Department. For information about admission and policies, see Graduate Programs, Procedures, and Policies.

The Master of Arts in School Counseling and the Master of Arts in Service Agency Counseling programs are organized into four curriculum components:

1. A professional counseling core component focusing on counseling theory and techniques, methods of analyzing the individual, and research.
2. A core of specialty area courses.
3. Laboratory/internship experiences enabling the student to apply theories, techniques, and skills under supervision in field settings.
4. Guided electives chosen to permit the student to fulfill personal objectives and interests.

School Counseling Program Goals

The goals for the school counseling program are consistent with the outcomes expected of beginning counselors as described by professional organizations, accreditation agencies, and professional literature. The program addresses the academic and career needs of a diverse group of counselors-in-training by offering a mixture of theoretical and applied training. Input for program policies is solicited from the Counseling Programs Steering Committee and the School Counseling Program Advisory Committee which consists of a mixture of faculty members, current students, program completers, and practicing school counselors. The program is designed to provide students with:

- advanced study in the theory of counseling individuals and groups;
- study of applied skills in counseling, consulting, testing, research, ethical practice, and service delivery techniques including technology;
- advanced study in the theory and skills needed for work in public school settings;
- the opportunity for the integration and reflection of theories and techniques into a defensible personal theoretical orientation to counseling in the public schools;
- improved counseling skills for individuals already employed in counseling positions;
- resources to enhance the potential for mental health within the region and state.

Service Agency Program Goals

The goals for the service agency counseling program are consistent with the outcomes expected of beginning counselors as described by professional organizations, accreditation agencies, and professional literature. The program addresses the academic and career needs of a diverse group of counselors-in-training by offering a mixture of theoretical and applied training. Input for program policies is solicited from the Counseling Programs Steering Committee. The program is designed to provide students with:

- advanced study in the theory of counseling individuals and groups;
- study of applied skills in counseling, testing, research, ethical practice, and service delivery techniques;
- advanced study in the theory and skills needed for work in service agency settings;

- the opportunity for the integration and reflection of theories and techniques into a defensible personal theoretical orientation to counseling in service agencies;
- improved counseling skills for individuals already employed in counseling positions;
- resources to enhance the potential for mental health within the region and state.

Laboratory/Internship Experiences

A counseling skills laboratory and a supervised internship are required of all students. Students must pass the Counseling Comprehensive Examination prior to enrolling in the counseling skills laboratory. The counseling skills laboratory experience is designed to refine basic counseling techniques, develop more advanced skills, and evaluate readiness for internship through the use of role playing, micro-counseling, and video-taping. A supervised internship in an appropriate field-based setting is also required. An additional supervised practicum may be required for students who want to be licensed as school counselors in North Carolina and do not possess "A" level teacher licensure.

Note: This practicum may not be used to fulfill degree requirements.

Portfolio

All students will be required to establish, maintain, and present a portfolio that demonstrates competencies in school counseling or service agency counseling. Students will receive guidelines for completing this requirement. Students will present and orally defend their portfolios to a panel during the internship class. The panel consists of a faculty member, student, and licensed practicing counselor.

PROGRAM-SPECIFIC ADMISSIONS STANDARDS (see also Graduate Admissions)

- All applicants for the M.A. degree in both counseling programs are required to submit an essay detailing their professional experiences and their objectives in pursuing graduate studies.
- The applicant must also demonstrate graduate level writing skills in his/her essay (see item a, above) indicating program-career goal compatibility and evidence of the personal attributes expected of a professional counselor.
- A personal interview with an appropriate member of the faculty may be requested.
