

You're invited to attend...

Tobacco Money Feeds My Family

A documentary film by Pink Hill native Cynthia Hill.
Featuring North Carolina tobacco farmers.

Through the lives of three farmers and her memories of growing up in a tobacco farming community, Cynthia explores the human side of North Carolina's controversial crop.

Movie will screen in Moore Hall Auditorium
at UNC Pembroke

Thursday, February 5, 7p.m.

Free Admission

After the movie, join filmmaker Cynthia Hill and W.C. Williford, Robeson County Extension Agent (retired), to discuss tobacco farming and the film.

A reception will follow the discussion.

Screening presented by the Southern Documentary Fund.

Sponsors for the event are the Division of Academic Affairs and the Friends of the Library of UNC Pembroke.

Major support for the film was provided by the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation, the Hillsdale Fund, the North Carolina Humanities Council, the North Carolina Arts Council, Progress Energy, the Mary Duke Biddle Foundation, the Flue Cured Tobacco Cooperative Stabilization Corporation, Daniel Kramer, Felix Harvey, East Carolina Farm Credit, JC Howard Farms, NC State Grange and NC Farm Bureau.

For event information call (910) 521-6212 or (910) 521-6655.

For film information call (919) 682-6795 or email at filmworks@docsouth.com.