

Report of the Committee on Committees and Elections for Senate Meeting of October 2, 2002

The Committee on Committees and Elections met during September to consider the eligibility of candidates for the Faculty Grievance Committee vacancy ballot. All four committee members were present. The Committee unanimously agreed that six candidates were eligible: Alfred Byant, Frances Hughes, Marilu Santos, Jean Sexton, Sara Simmons, and Laszlo Zsilinsky.

Subsequently, the Committee received 110 ballots for this vacancy, but none of the candidates received a 33% plurality. A run-off election will be conducted between Marilu Santos and Laszlo Zsilinsky.
