Appendix A: Report From Faculty Assembly

The Faculty Assembly will be discussing the following for further discussion among UNC delegates:

1. Resolution for Workplace Innovation. The purposes of this resolution are: 1) explore creative and acceptable ways to reduce FTEs within the university system. This is believed to be necessary because further budget cuts are a real possibility in the years ahead and 75% of the UNC budget is dedicated to personnel costs. The resolution suggests the creation of a retirement incentive fund for individuals at or near retirement age. No changes in the phased retirement program are suggested. 2) Create a voluntary reduced work week for eligible employees. The guidelines for such a program would come from GA with input from the Faculty Assembly.

2. Resolution for State Employee Health Plan. Audits of the health plan reveal that the plan lacks efficiency. As well, these audits highlight the increasing share of the state budget consumed by the plan. This resolution suggests that UNC employees be separated from the State Health Plan and placed. The resolution proposes coverage for all employees and students under its own plan. Further, the resolution calls for no cost for basic coverage and "reasonable" deductibles.

3. Resolution for Zero Balanced Budgeting. This resolution suggests that budgets be developed based on the assumption that there will be no continuation dollars from the previous year.

4. Resolution on the Use of Furloughs as a Budget Management Tool. This resolution would affirm that the Faculty Assembly does not support the use of furloughs as a budget management tool.

5. Suggested Administrative Code Revisions regarding Academic Freedom. The suggested changes are intended to strengthen protections for academic freedom. In my opinion the language changes that are suggested provide for greater specificity than the current language; substantively, there is no significant change.

Report From Teacher Education

To: Dr. Ramin Masaymi - Chair, Faculty Senate

From: Dr. Leah Holland Fiorentino – Dean, School of Education

Re: Teacher Education Committee Report for Faculty Senate – September 2010

Please accept these important items in your discussions with the Faculty Senate. The Teacher Education Committee appreciates the support we receive from our colleagues in all academic units.

1. Student Internship placements for fall semester = 67 (fall 2009 placements – 50)
2. MSA Internship placements for fall semester = 38 (fall 2009 placements – 41)
3. At the August TEC meeting, 132 new students were admitted to the Teacher Education program and are eligible to enroll in upper level program courses effective this fall semester
4. All programs at the initial licensure level are now approved and effective for this fall enrollment (27 programs in total have moved through the state approval process and the campus approval process)
5. All program revisions at the advanced level have been submitted and programs will now begin to move materials through the campus approval process for fall 2011 implementation (25 programs in total)
6. As a result of over 1,300 personal contacts with potential students over the past 12 months, 359 new students (freshmen/transfers) have enrolled as Education majors this fall. Ms Sandra Strickland (Director of Teacher Recruiting and Retention) and Ms Jennifer Whittington (Community College Teacher Recruiter) should be recognized for their outstanding efforts this past year.

Appendix C: Report from Graduate Council

Respectfully submitted by Dr. Sara Simmons, Acting Dean of the School of Graduate Studies

The Graduate Council will hold its first meeting of the 2010-2011 academic year on Monday, September 20, 2010. In lieu of a report of the business conducted by the Graduate Council, this report will provide a brief overview of the School of Graduate Studies and graduate programs at UNCP and will provide a context in which to receive future reports from the Graduate Council to the Faculty Senate.

Graduate Programs

The University offers seventeen (17) graduate programs leading to a master's degree. These programs provide graduate education that is “Powerful, Personal, and Practical,” as stated in promotional materials and advertising. The following graduate programs are available:

- Master of School Administration (M.S.A.)
- Master of Social Work (M.S.W.)

Graduate Program Directors

Each graduate program is under the leadership of an experienced graduate faculty member who serves as the program director and as a member of the Graduate Council. The Graduate Council is the University-wide committee charged with oversight of Graduate School policies, appointment of graduate faculty, and review and approval of graduate curriculum proposals.

The following faculty members are serving in leadership roles as graduate program directors and as members of the Graduate Council:

Dr. Valerie Austin (Music Education)

Dr. Scott Billingsley (Social Studies Education)
Dr. Alfred Bryant (Professional School Counseling)
Dr. Patrick Hannigan (Middle Grades Education & Master of Arts in Teaching)
Dr. Michael Hawthorne (M.P.A.), Interim for fall 2010 semester
Dr. Angela Holman (Mental Health Counseling)
Dr. Ann Horton-Lopez (Art Education)
Dr. Roger Ladd (English Education)
Dr. Raymond Lee (Mathematics Education)
Dr. Howard Ling (M.B.A.)
Dr. Heather Kimberly Dial Sellers (Reading Education)
Dr. Young Sohn (M.S.W.)
Dr. Karen Stanley (Elementary Education)
Dr. Tommy Thompson (Physical Education)
Dr. Donnie Weeks (M.S.A.)
Dr. Velinda Worriax (Science Education)

Recruitment, Graduation, Admissions, and Enrollment

Although it is too early to determine the long-term effect our current economic crisis will have on graduate enrollment, the number of inquiries and the number of applications to the UNCP School of Graduate Studies have increased.

During the spring and summer, the School of Graduate Studies worked collaboratively with the School of Education and the Office of Distance Education to recruit prospective graduate students into several graduate education programs (Elementary Education, Reading Education, School Administration) to be offered at several off-campus locations (Bladen County, Sandhills Community College, Ft. Bragg).

Forty-four (44) graduate students completed degree and program requirements and earned their diplomas as of August 4, 2010. These students are eligible to participate in the Winter Commencement.

Approximately 234 individuals were granted either first time admission and/or readmission for the fall 2010 semester. As of August 25, 2010, the total number of graduate students registered for fall 2010 was 781 students. As a comparison, the total graduate enrollment on the census date for the spring 2010 semester was 732 students.

MEMORANDUM

To: Faculty Senate

From: Jesse Peters
Faculty Sponsor, Alpha Chi

Date: August 12, 2010

RE: Alpha Chi Selection for the 2010-2011 academic year

According to the most recent printout of GPA rankings, the following persons are eligible for induction into Alpha Chi. We are allowed to induct the top 5% of the junior class and the top 10% of the senior class. Qualified students who have already been inducted are, of course, not mentioned. On the basis of these criteria, I recommend for approval the induction of the persons listed on the attachments. Once the senate approves the list, invitations will be sent to the students.
